PRESS RELEASE

Trinidadians still dominate the Republic Bank Caribbean Junior Open Golf Championships 2010. In the Boys 16 – 17 division, Talin Rajendranath is now in first position with a collective score of 149. Jake Delaney (153) and Andrei Collins (155) are placed second and third respectively, giving young Jack Widmer of the Cayman Islands some intense competition, with his score of 173.

Brittany Marquez is in the lead again of the Girls 16 – 17 category with a brilliant 159, ahead of Natalyia Rahamatula (168) and Aleema Jack with 172.

Yesterday's leader Arianne MacKenzie was shot down in the Girls 14 – 15 division, after she shot 98 on the second day of play. Alyssa Rahamatula (83) is now in the lead followed by Christina Ferreira (92).

In the Boys 14 – 15 division, Matthew Marquez has dropped to second with a cumulative score of 156. Jamaican, Johnathan Newnham is now in first with a score of 153, while Robert Boocock remains third with 164.

Sachin Kumar, with a score of 155, still leads in the Boys 13 & under. In second place is Axl Bailey with 167, followed closely by Wan Ju Lee with 170.

We now anxiously wait to see what challenges tomorrow's game will bring.
